GENERAL INFORMATION

E. Interest

Every deposit earns interest at a rate set annually by the Commission based on the current economic conditions and current charges paid for money borrowed by the Company, taking into account the expenses incurred by the Company in obtaining, handling, returning or crediting the sum deposited.

The interest must be paid to the Customer when the deposit is returned. If the deposit has been held for 12 consecutive months or more, the interest must be credited to the Customer no later than the first bill rendered after the next succeeding first day of October and at the end of each succeeding 12-month period.

F. Deposit Return

The Company will return a deposit or portion of a deposit plus the applicable interest as soon as reasonably possible, but no more than 30 calendar days after:

1. the date of the first bill for service rendered after a twelve-month period during which time the Customer was not delinquent, provided there is no other basis for the Corporation to request a deposit under Section A of this Subdivision.
2. the day an account is closed; or
3. an annual review.
