25.            THE INSTALLATION OF MAINS, SERVICE CONNECTIONS AND FACILITIES NOT COVERED IN SECTION 23.

- A.            An Applicant for an extension of mains in any street, avenue, road or way open to the general public for highway purposes, who cannot qualify as a reasonably permanent Customer (such as a real estate developer), will be required to execute an agreement in form set forth in following leaves of this schedule entitled "Form of Extension Agreement-Construction Loan Contract Upon Application of Real Estate Developers or Others Who Cannot Qualify as Reasonably Permanent Customers."
- B.            The Water Company will not extend its mains in private streets unless a Right-of-Way therefore is provided in satisfactory form at the time the "Construction Loan Contract" is signed.
- C.            If the Applicant or the Company is of the opinion that any clause of the agreement set forth is unjust or unreasonable because of special facts or circumstances application may be made to the Public Service Commission for modification of such form of agreement.
