3.4.5 Backbills

The Company shall not backbill a non-residential Customer:

- a. more than 6 months after the Company actually became aware of the circumstances, error, or condition that caused the underbilling, unless a court extends the time to render a backbill;
- b. for service rendered more than 12 months before the Company actually became aware of the circumstances, error, or condition that when the failure was due to Company deficiency caused the underbilling, unless the Company can demonstrate that the Customer knew or reasonably should have known that the original billing was incorrect;
- c. for service rendered more than 24 months before the Company actually became aware of the circumstances, error, or condition that caused the underbilling, unless the Company can demonstrate that the Customer knew or reasonably should have known that the original billing was incorrect.

Backbilling for residential and non-residential Customers is subject to the rules of the Public Service Commission.
