Furthermore, the Customer will automatically be reclassified as a firm supplemental service Customer for the succeeding twelve month period. The Company will bill the Customer under the firm Supplemental Service Classification (Service Classification No. 4) for a twelve month period with the first month being the month during which the Customer used gas during a period of interruption and the peak daily usage established during that month will be used for calculating the Customer's bill under that Classification.

Where a condition is experienced by the Customer which prevents the required transfer from gas service provided by the Company, the Customer agrees to immediately notify the Company, to take immediate action to correct such a situation, and to notify the Company when such condition has been corrected. In the event that such notification is given, the Customer shall have four (4) hours within which to correct such condition and Customer shall not be billed the additional charge for any gas used during such four-hour period if such condition is corrected within such period. The Customer, however, in that event, will be reclassified as a firm supplemental service customer for a twelve month period as previously set forth herein. The Company may waive the additional charge and/or the conversion to firm service as set forth herein if the Customer (i) notifies the Company as set forth above, (ii) identifies an unforeseeable condition outside the control of the Customer as the condition preventing the transfer from the Company's service, (iii) makes a good faith effort to immediately correct the problem and (iv) does not repeatedly encounter the same or similar condition.

The imposition of such additional charge shall not limit any rights of the Company to terminate gas service pursuant to any provision of the Company tariff. In the event that the Company finds that the interruption thereof would create a danger or threat to health or safety, the Company shall have the option to leave the Customer on gas service from the Company and such Customer shall be charged the additional charge for such consumption as provided herein.

I. UNAUTHORIZED DEFICIENCY IMBALANCE PENALTY:

If any Customer should take during any year a volume of gas in excess of the amount allowable under General Information Section 20 as hereinbefore set forth, the Customer shall pay to the Company a penalty of $3 for each Mcf of gas of such excess, which penalty shall be paid in addition to all other charges payable by the Customer hereunder.

The payment of a penalty for authorized deficiency imbalance shall not under any circumstances be considered as giving any such Customer the right to take unauthorized deficiency imbalance, not shall such payment be considered as a substitute for any other remedies available to the Company against the offending Customer for failure to respect its obligation to adhere to the provisions of its agreement with the Company.

If any Customer should take a volume of gas in contravention of curtailments imposed by the Company as contemplated in General Information Section 20.D., the Customer shall pay to the Company an additional penalty of $7 for each Mcf of such gas taken in violation of such curtailment.
