SERVICE CLASSIFICATION NO. 7 (Cont'd)

4. Customer will be responsible for the total cost of installing any required electronic recording devices. Customer will be required to make a deposit of $100 per meter location at the time of application for service to partially cover the cost of purchasing and installing the required electronic recording meters. Corning shall retain ownership of equipment and be responsible for required maintenance. The remaining cost may be paid in a lump sum by Customer or over 24 months which cost would include interest calculated at the unadjusted customer deposit rate. Corning shall endeavor to utilize the least expensive equipment necessary to provide the required readings. Customer shall be required to provide telephone service and 100 volt electric service at each meter location. In certain circumstances, larger customers may be required to provide dedicated telephone service.
5. Customer may designate an agent who would assume the responsibilities of the Customer providing such designation is made in writing in the form prescribed in the Agency Agreement set forth in the General Information section of the Company's tariff. If such a designation is made, Customer assumes full responsibility for additional costs or penalties incurred as a result of actions of the agent so designated.
6. Balancing
Customers shall follow the balancing rules described in General Information section W5 of the company's tariff.
7. Marketers serving firm human needs customers must comply with one of the following:
 - a) Must take a capacity assignment from the Company for the 12 - month period November 1st thru October 31st at maximum rates.
 - b) Demonstrate that they have adequate winter season (Nov. - Mar.) firm, non-recallable, primary delivery point capacity to the city gate. CNG maintains that any customer who is currently required to have firm, primary point capacity as of August 30, 2007 is included. The level of capacity that is to be "grandfathered" for each marketer is the level they possessed on August 30, 2007. Any change in capacity will be made a part of the Affidavit process that takes place each fall. The level of grandfathered capacity that is accepted at that time will remain in effect for the next 12 months. Any customer must take a mandatory assignment of capacity unless they hold grandfathered rights to their own capacity on August 30, 2007
