

N. Discontinuance of Service - Non-residential: (Cont'd.)

- (1) Except in the case of tampered equipment as provided by paragraph (2) of this rule and Rule N.3, the Company will only terminate service to a customer if it provides advance final notice of the termination and fulfills all other requirements of this rule when the customer:
  - (i) fails to pay any tariff charge due on the customer's account for which a written bill itemizing the charge, in conformance with 16 NYCRR 13.11 regarding contents of bill, has been sent, except for charges that reflect service used more than six years prior to the time the bill first containing these charges was rendered, which charges must be pursued by other methods of collection.
  - (ii) fails to pay amounts due under a deferred payment agreement:
  - (iii) fails to pay a security deposit in accordance with Rule B.6;
  - (iv) fails to provide reasonable access to the premises for necessary or proper purposes in connection with rendering of service, including meter installation, reading or testing, or the maintenance, or removal, or securing, of the Company's property, so long as the requirements of Rule I.2.(f) have been met, and the customer has not advised the Company that the customer does not and who does have control over access; or
  - (v) fails to comply with a provision of the company's tariff which permits the Company to refuse to supply or to terminate service.
- (2) The Company may terminate service to a customer without providing advance notice of the termination and without fulfilling
