GENERAL INFORMATION - ContinuedIII. General Rules, Regulations, Terms and Conditions under Which Gas Service Will Be Supplied, Applicable to and Made a Part of All Agreements for Gas Service - Continued*14. Gas Service Curtailments - Continued

(F) - In the event gas supply intended for lower priority customers is diverted from ESCOs and DCs to serve higher priority Customers pursuant to provisions (C) and (D) of this Section, the ESCO or DC from whom gas is diverted will be compensated for the volume diverted at the market price during the curtailment. The market price of gas is defined as the arithmetic average of the daily "Midpoint" gas prices for (1) Transco Zone 6 – N.Y. and (2) Texas Eastern, M3 for the applicable diverted gas flow day as published by Platts in the Gas Daily Price Guide. If the ESCO/DC can demonstrate to the Company's satisfaction that (a) its contract calls for a higher price and (b) the contract price is reasonable, the Company will reimburse the ESCO/DC at the contract price. The ESCO/DC shall be responsible for providing the Company with adequate support of the higher contract price. Customers of ESCOs who are affected by a curtailment must seek compensation from their ESCO. When gas is diverted to serve firm sales or transportation service classifications, payments made by the Company will be recovered through the Monthly Rate Adjustments applicable to firm sales and transportation customers in accordance with General Information Rule VII (A) 5 (Cost of Compensation Adjustment).

15. Minimum Insulation Standards

Eligibility of any "new dwelling" for gas service, and eligibility of any existing dwelling for gas service for conversion to space heating are governed by, among other provisions, the requirements set forth in the State of New York Official Compilation of Rules and Regulations of 16 NYCRR 233, which provide in relevant part as follows:
