A. Electricity Supply Pricing Options

For each Enrollment Period and Commodity Rate Period specified above, RG&E will offer two Retail Access choices and two Non-Retail Access choices, as set forth in this Section 12. The information provided in this Section is an overview of the available Electricity Supply Pricing Options. Additional detail can be found in the individual Service Classification sections in this Schedule. Electricity Supply Pricing will be calculated in accordance with RG&E's Electric Rate Joint Proposal and as modified by the August 28, 2008, Order.

The Retail Access choices consist of the ESCO Price Option ("EPO") and ESCO Option with Supply Adjustment ("EOSA"). The Non-Retail Access choices consist of RG&E's Variable Price Option ("VPO") and RG&E's Fixed Price Option ("FPO").

1. ESCO Price Option (EPO):

Effective through December 31, 2008:

This Retail Access choice includes fixed charges for RG&E delivery service, a fluctuating Transition Charge ("TC", or Non-Bypassable Charge ["NBC"] described below), a Retail Access Credit of $0.004 per kWh, and a Bill Issuance Charge. Electricity supply is provided by an ESCO.

Effective beginning January 1, 2009:

This Retail Access choice includes fixed charges for RG&E delivery service, a fixed Transition Charge ("TC", or Non-Bypassable Charge ["NBC"] described below), a Retail Access Credit of $0.004 per kWh, and a Bill Issuance Charge. Electricity supply is provided by an ESCO.

2. ESCO Option with Supply Adjustment ("EOSA"):

This Retail Access choice consists of the charges described under the RG&E Fixed Price Option (FPO), and a Supply Adjustment in the form of a Market Based Backout Credit ("MBBC") and a Retail Access Credit ("RAC"). The MBBC, as described in Rule 11.C.10 of this Schedule, fluctuates with the market price of electricity and consists of energy, unforced capacity, unforced capacity reserves, losses and unaccounted for energy. The RAC is a fixed credit of $0.005 per kWh. Electricity supply is provided by an ESCO.
