GENERAL INFORMATION

F. Backbilling

.1 Notice

- .1.1 Every backbill will contain a written explanation of the specific reason for the backbill, and if the bill covers more than a twenty-four month period, a statement as to why the billing was not limited as stated in paragraph 3 Limitations on Backbilling Period.
- .1.2 A backbill will be accompanied by an offer of a payment agreement in accordance with subsection M, Deferred Payment Agreements of this tariff, if applicable.

.2 Limitations on Issuance of Backbills

- .2.1 The Corporation may not issue a backbill more than six (6) months after the Corporation actually became aware of the circumstance, error or condition that caused the underbilling.
- .2.2 The Corporation may not upwardly revise a backbill, and will issue a downwardly revised backbill as soon as reasonably possible and within two (2) months after the Corporation becomes aware that the first backbill was excessive.

.3 Limitations on Backbilling Period

- .3.1 When the failure to bill earlier was due to a Corporation deficiency, the Corporation will limit the backbilling period to twelve (12) months before the Corporation actually became aware of and corrected the circumstances, error or condition that caused the underbilling, unless the Corporation can demonstrate that the customer's culpable conduct caused or contributed to the original underbilling.
- .3.2 When the failure to bill earlier was not due to a Corporation deficiency, the Corporation will limit the backbilling period to 24 months before the Corporation actually became aware of and corrected the circumstance, error or condition that caused the underbilling, unless the Corporation can demonstrate that the customer's culpable conduct caused or contributed to the original underbilling.
