For determining continued eligibility after the first fifteen months of service hereunder, and annually each year thereafter, Peak Day Gas Usage shall be calculated as follows:

For a Customer with a Distributed Generation Facility rated at less than 5 MegaWatts and billed under Rate I of this Rider, the Customer's Peak Day Usage is the Customer's highest Average Daily Usage occurring during the annual determination period multiplied by a factor determined by the Company, to reflect the relationship between the experienced actual peak day gas usage and the highest average daily gas usage.
