VI. Service Classification Riders (Available on Request) - Continued

RIDER H

Applicable to Service Classification Nos. 2 and 9
(Subject to the provisions thereof)

Distributed Generation Rate

(E) Term

The term is fifteen months from the date of commencement of service hereunder, and successive annual periods thereafter. The Customer or the Company may terminate service at the end of each annual period upon not less than 30 days prior notice in writing to the other party, except that the 30 day notice period shall not apply in cases where the Customer becomes ineligible for service hereunder for failure to maintain an Annual Load Factor of fifty percent or more. The Company may also terminate service in the manner provided by law and provisions of this Rate Schedule. In addition to all other remedies available to the Company, the Company reserves the right to discontinue service immediately, temporarily or permanently, to the Customer or to the premises where there is a violation or any failure to comply with any of the provisions of this Rider, the Company's Sales and Transportation Operating procedures, or this Rate Schedule.

An Applicant will become eligible for service under this Rider on the first day of the next billing cycle following Company's receipt of an acceptable application for service and the completion of the installation of the required metering equipment and telecommunication facilities. This Rider shall remain in effect through October 31, 2006.

The rates provided under this Rider are available for a maximum term of three years commencing November 1, 2003. Subject to the terms and conditions herein, Customers commencing service under this Rider after November 1, 2003 may receive service hereunder for the remainder of the three-year term of this Rider. Customers whose annual load factor falls below 50 percent will be transferred to the otherwise applicable Service Classification and may reapply for service under this Rider after twelve months.
