SERVICE CLASSIFICATION NO. 4A

MONTHLY AVERAGE DAY INTERRUPTIBLE TRANSPORTATION SERVICE (Cont'd)

Increases in Rates and Charges:

The rates and charges are subject to the tax factor as explained in 2.XIV.

Terms of Payment:

Net cash – interest will be charged at the rate of 0.06% per day on all amounts due and owing on accounts within this Service Classification, except to State agencies, starting twenty days after the bill is rendered. Service to State agencies will be rendered in accordance with the requirements of Article XI-A of the State Finance Law (Chapter 153 of the Laws of 1984, effective July 1, 1984).

Term:

The contract for service shall continue in force at least one year from the date of commencement of service and for yearly periods thereafter until terminated by either party. The service contract is terminable by either party after the expiration of its original term on not less than 60 days written notice to the other, subject to law and the rules and regulations set forth in General Information, except that where termination of commodity supply to a Human Needs Customer is imminent, for any reason, customers' Agent must notify in writing customers and company at least 15 days before discontinuation of supply service is to be effective.

Special Provisions:

1. Company reserves the right to accept only such applications and enter into contracts under this Service Classification as will permit it, in its sole discretion, to dispose of the capacity it has available for sale on an interruptible basis.
2. Service under this classification is subject to company's rules and regulations set forth in General Information.
3. In the event that the provision of transportation service to customer requires company to incur related charges, an amount reflecting the costs incurred by company will be added to the rate.
4. Prior to the initiation of service or extension thereof, any additional facilities, including, without limitation, metering facilities, which company deems are necessary to provide this service shall be provided at customer's expense.
5. Company will control the dispatch of such gas, and dispatch will be provided as requested by customer, if company can do so without adversely affecting service to customers with a higher service priority.
6. All service provided hereunder will be subject to interruption before interruption to Service Classification Nos. 1, 2, and 3. Customer, or the Agent on behalf of a group of customers, is obligated to deliver the nominated Monthly Average Daily Transportation Volume to company on each and every day of the month during the term of the applicable gas transportation service agreement, including days on which redeliveries to customer are curtailed by company pursuant to notice therefore.
