(B) Capacity Release Service - Continued

(4) Quantity:

A new or Converting Customer electing Capacity Release Service may select any quantity up to a maximum daily quantity tied to the Customer's winter peak usage ("Maximum Quantity"). For a Customer taking the Load Following Service or Daily Delivery Service, the Maximum Quantity shall be the historical average daily quantity during the Customer's winter peak month. For a Customer taking the Daily Cashout Service, the Maximum Quantity shall be the Customer's historical winter peak day quantity. The Company shall calculate and provide the Maximum Quantity to all Customers.

If a Customer does not select any quantity of Capacity Release Service, the Customer shall present documentation to the Company that there is in place one or more executed transportation contract(s) with one or more interstate pipeline(s) for firm transportation to the Citygate dedicated to deliveries for the Customer's account for each winter season (November-March). For the winter season (November-March), such transportation must be non-recallable firm with primary delivery point capacity to the Citygate. The maximum daily quantity shall be equal to:

- (a) For a Customer taking the Load Following Service or Daily Delivery Service, the historical average daily quantity during the Customer's winter peak month (November through March).
- (b) For a Customer taking the Daily Cashout Service, the Customer's historical peak day quantity during the winter season (November through March).
