SPECIAL PROVISIONS:(Continued)

- H. Relocation of facilities of Company, joint owner, or prior licensees to accommodate Customer street lighting equipment will be done by Company, joint owner or prior licensees at Customer's expense. In addition, pole replacements necessitated by the installation of Customer's street lighting equipment shall be performed by Company or joint owner at Customer's expense.
- I. Additional lamp locations may be installed or the alteration of existing equipment for increased or decreased illumination or for a conversion to a different type of lamp, are subject to Company approval prior to installation. Written request will be required and appended to Customer's form "M6", Application for Service. A revised Schedule "SL6" will be required.
- J. Upon not less than 30 days' prior written notice to Company, Customer may require that the lighting of any lamp or lamps be discontinued either temporarily or permanently. If the discontinuance is temporary, Customer will be required to pay Company the applicable charges for such lamps and equipment, adjusted as provided in Section E under "RATE" during the period of discontinuance. If the discontinuance is permanent, Company shall have the right to remove said lamps and equipment. The Customer may be required to pay for the removal cost.
- K. Upon termination of service hereunder or under a superseding service classification or contract, Company shall have the right to remove all Company facilities placed, installed, erected or used pursuant to the supplying of street lighting service. Removal of equipment may be at Customer's expense. Upon making such removal, Company shall leave the public streets and places affected thereby in the same or as good condition as they were immediately thereto.
