12.1 COMPETITIVE METERING (Cont'd)

F. METERING (Cont'd)

(e) Until EDI becomes fully operational, the method for the accurate and timely transfer of data among parties will be developed mutually in the Metering Services Operating Agreement between Central Hudson and the MDSP.

G. REQUIREMENTS for Meter and Meter Data Service Providers

To be eligible to offer metering services in Central Hudson territory, MSPs and MDSPs must: (1) hold a letter of eligibility issued by the New York State Department of Public Service (NYSDPS); (2) abide by the applicable compliance requirements cited for Retail Suppliers under General Information Section 35.I.; (3) maintain creditworthiness and operating standards required by Central Hudson; (4) comply with the "New York Practices and Procedures for the Provision of Electric Metering in a Competitive Environment" attached as Addendum No.1; and, (5) execute a Metering Services Operating Agreement with Central Hudson.

Application procedures for NYSDPS eligibility are outlined in Addendum No.1, Section 1, Chapter II. NYS eligible MSPs/MDSPs should contact Central Hudson's Director of Customer Choice Programs to obtain a copy of the Metering Services Operating Agreement.

H. CREDITWORTHINESS

Creditworthiness standards will be applied to each individual MSP/MDSP offering metering services in the Central Hudson territory. The creditworthiness standards established for Retail Suppliers under General Information Section 35.0. will apply equally to MSPs and MDSPs.
