2. DEFINITIONS (Cont'd)

Backbill is that portion of any bill, other than a levelized bill, which represents charges not previously billed for service that was actually delivered to the customer during a period before the current billing cycle. A bill based on an actual reading rendered after one or more bills based on estimated or customer readings which exceeds by 50 percent or more the bill that would have been rendered under a utility's standard estimation program is presumed to be a backbill.

Business Day is any Monday through Friday when the Company's business offices are open.

Company means the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation.

Competitive Transition Charge ("CTC") - A non-bypassable charge which is designed to recover the non-fuel production costs of the Company's generation facilities. The charge is applicable to all customers except customers taking service under Service Classification No. 5, 8, 9 and 10.

Cost or Expense shall include all labor, material and other charges applicable thereto, including the cost of removing and replacing pavement and sidewalks, plus a reasonable allowance for engineering, superintendence purchasing and use of construction equipment.

Deferred Payment Agreement is a written agreement for the payment of outstanding charges over a specified period of time. It must be signed in duplicate by a Company representative and the customer, and each must receive a copy, before it becomes enforceable by either party.

Distribution Line is an electric line used to distribute electric energy, which will or may reasonably be expected to provide service to more than one customer.
