GENERAL INFORMATION (Cont.)

Dual Bills shall mean bills issued to Retail Access Customers by the Company and by ESCO/Marketers, each containing only their own charges for services rendered.

Energy Services Company shall mean any non-utility entity that can perform energy and customers service functions in a competitive environment, including provisions of energy and assistance in the efficiency of its use. The term ESCO is used herein to refer to entities that are deemed eligible by the Department of Public Service to provide gas and associated customer service functions to end use customers in New York State.

Rate Ready shall mean the billing entity will be responsible for the billing calculations, however the ESCOs must be responsible for the transmittal of all their customers' appropriate and applicable tax and surcharge rate(s) to be used by the billing entity in its calculation processes.

Retail Access shall mean that the ESCO/Marketer supplies the commodity and, potentially, other services, while the Company provides delivery and possibly other services to customers.

Sales Service shall mean the Company bundled service of delivery, supply and other services offered.

Single Bill shall mean a bill combining the Company and the ESCO/Marketer charges for natural gas service.

Single Billing Arrangement shall mean the billing method in which Retail Access Customers receive bills that combine Company and ESCO/Marketer charges for their electricity and/or natural gas accounts.

II. ELIGIBILITY

Customer: Any Customer participating in the KeySpan Energy Delivery Natural Choice program. A customer may elect to receive a single bill for service from either KED or an approved ESCO who offers the desired billing service.
