TRANSPORTATION SERVICE - Continued

Rates - Continued

(J) Other Rates, Charges and Adjustments - Continued

(5) Capacity Release Service Charge or Credit:

When a Customer takes Capacity Release Service and the maximum rate on the pipeline(s) on which capacity is released is less than the Rate for Capacity Release Service, the Customer shall pay a monthly charge equal to the difference multiplied by the monthly quantity of released capacity. If the maximum rate on the pipeline(s) is greater than the Rate for Capacity Release Service, and the Customer pays the pipeline in excess of the Company's average cost of capacity as a result of pipeline's bidding process, the Capacity Release Customer shall receive a credit equal to the difference multiplied by the monthly quantity of released capacity.

(6) Pipeline Transition Cost Charge:

All Customers shall pay a Transition Cost Charge per therm to recover Order No. 636 transition costs, except a Customer(s) who provides the Company suitable documentation demonstrating that it is paying Order No. 636 transition costs directly to a pipeline for firm pipeline transportation.

(7) Competitive Retail Choice Credit:

By Order of the Public Service Commission dated November 29, 2000, approving the Interim Settlement Agreement dated November 7, 2000 in Case No. 00-G-1456 ("Settlement"), Customers receiving firm transportation service under Rates (A) of Service Classification No. 9 shall be credited with a Competitive Retail Choice Credit ("CRCC") of 2.4 cents per therm over the period December 1, 2000 through September 30, 2001. The CRCC will be reflected as a separate credit to the Adjustment to Base Rates under Rates (A) and set forth on the Statement of Rate for Service Classification No. 9 in effect over that period. The actual amount of CRCCs credited monthly to firm transportation customers less 1.2 cents per therm will serve to reduce certain credits otherwise due firm customers in accordance with the terms of the Settlement. The CRCC does not apply to any transportation customers taking service under Rates B-D of this Service Classification.
