MONTHLY METERED TRANSPORTATION (MMT) SERVICE

APPLICABLE TO USE FOR:

For Customers which are not converting from firm sales service under the SC 1 and SC 3 Service Classifications after May 1, 1996, consumption under a single account where the customer totally revokes its status as a firm sales Customer under the SC 1 and SC 3 Service Classifications and enters into a Transportation Service Agreement with the Company. A residential Customer that meets the qualification criteria for Service Classification No. 1 shall not be allowed service under this Rate Schedule unless such Customer has contracted with the Company for Standby Sales Service to meet the entire needs of its facility. All other Customers heating any building solely by gas where persons reside, including apartment houses, prisons, dormitories, nursing homes, hospitals, hotels, and other buildings where persons may dwell on a permanent basis shall be allowed service under this Rate Schedule only if such Customer has contracted for Standby Sales Service to meet the entire needs of its facility.

For Customers converting from firm sales service under SC 1 and SC 3 Service Classifications after May 1, 1996, consumption under a single account where the Customer totally revokes its status as a firm sales Customer under the SC 1 and SC 3 Service Classifications, enters into a Transportation Service Agreement with the Company, and has either: (1) contracted for standby service to meet the entire needs of its facility, or (2) acquired firm upstream capacity as required in Upstream Capacity Requirements Section of this Service Classification.

CHARACTER OF SERVICE:

Transportation of gas to Customers. Whether such transportation is firm or interruptible and the degree to which such service is firm or interruptible shall be determined in the transportation contract between the Company and the Customer. A Customer heating any building solely by gas where persons reside, including apartment houses, prisons, dormitories, nursing homes, hospitals, hotels, and other buildings where persons may dwell on a permanent basis shall only be allowed firm service under this Rate Schedule. The default level of service will be firm transportation service. Except insofar as the Customer contracts for Standby Service or Firm Transportation Sales Service with respect to identified gas burning equipment, the Company has no obligation to secure gas supplies on behalf of the Customer, and the Customer will be permitted to draw upon the Company's gas supply only to the extent that the Company permits authorized deficiency imbalances. The Customer's ability to elect Sales Service under SC 1 and SC 3 upon termination of the Transportation Service Agreement will be subject to the availability of sufficient system gas supplies.

RATES:

1. Minimum Charge

The monthly Minimum Charge ("MC") applicable to Customers in the following classifications are given below:

The monthly MC shall include the transportation charge for the first Mcf of gas transportation by the Customer.
