- b) The other party must, as soon as possible, but in no case more than 15 calendar days following receipt of the complaint, provide a written response to the complaining party, with an alternative resolution proposal if the complaining party's proposed resolution is deemed unacceptable; or, with the results of any informal resolution that may have been reached with the other party prior to that date.
- c) If the initial exchange of written material and/or verbal discussions does not resolve the dispute, the complaining party may request a meeting(s) to discuss the matter further. The responding party must agree to such a meeting(s) to be held within 15 calendar days following the request.
