APPLICATION FOR PARTS REPLACEMENT CONTRACT - ContinuedTerms and Conditions for Con Edison's PLUS Plan - ContinuedTerm and Renewal of Contract*

~~Coverage will commence 10 days from receipt of the Customer's payment, will continue for one year, and each contract~~ will be renewed for another one-year term provided payment is received within 14 days of the last day of the preceding ~~term. If payment for a renewal contract is not received within 14 days after the expiration of the contract term, repairs~~ made to equipment following the last day of the preceding contract term shall be billed to the Customer at the unit charge(s) stated in the Company's rate schedule and parts list. Failure to comply with the terms and conditions of this contract may result in the termination of the contract. In that event, the Customer will not be entitled to a refund for any portion of the amount paid for the current contract.

Cancellation of Contract

The Company reserves the right to cancel this contract on 15 day's prior written notice to the Customer. The Company will refund to the Customer the prorated annual amount for any full months remaining on the canceled contract. The Customer may cancel this contract within 20 days of the Company's receipt of the Customer's payment if no claim has been made under the contract, and the Company will refund the Customer's payment within 30 days of the Customer's request or pay a penalty of 10 percent per month for any amount not refunded within 30 days.

Billing and Payment of Charges

Payment for parts replacement contract must be made at the time of application.

Transferability of Contract

If a Customer with a parts replacement contract in effect moves, the terms and conditions of the contract shall continue to apply to the successor Customer at the location during the remainder of the contract term but the successor Customer will have no right to a refund on either party's cancellation of the contract for any reason.
