DUAL-FUEL SALES SERVICE (DFSS) - Continued

Rates - Continued

Off-Peak Firm Customers taking Off-Peak Firm Service under Service Classification No. 9 shall receive credit for volumes taken under that Service Classification during the billing period.

Charges for Unauthorized Gas Use and balancing charges shall not be credited against the minimum charge.

Annual Reconciliation:

If a Customer incurs a minimum charge in any month(s) but the quantity of service taken in the Annual Period is equal to or greater than 1/2 of the Annual Quantity (exclusive of the allowance for losses), the Company shall refund all minimum charges paid in excess of the amounts applicable to the quantity of service taken in the shortfall months. If the quantity of service taken in the Annual Period is less than 1/2 of the Annual Quantity, the Company shall refund so much of the minimum charges paid in the shortfall months as exceed the amount payable for 1/2 of the Customer's Annual Quantity. The Annual Period is the 12 months beginning with the month in which the Customer first receives service under this Service Classification and each succeeding 12-month period. This calculation shall exclude any Charges for Unauthorized Use.

(D) Other Rates, Charges and Adjustments:

Customers shall be responsible for paying, in addition to the Base Rates and, where applicable, Minimum Charge, one or more of the following rates, charges, or adjustments to Base Rates, as applicable.

(1) Increase in Rates and Charges:

Rates 1 and 2 shall be increased by the applicable percentage, in accordance with General Information Section VIII.
