Capacity Release Service - Continued

(B) Capacity Release Service - Continued

(6) Capacity Release Service Agreement:

The Company shall require the Customer to sign a Capacity Release Service Agreement setting forth the terms of the capacity release.

(7) Credit Requirements:

A Customer must satisfy the credit requirements prescribed by the FERC tariff of the pipeline(s) on which capacity will be released and provide the Company with appropriate documentation of compliance with those requirements. The Customer shall notify the Company immediately of any change in its financial circumstances that results in non-compliance with the pipeline requirements.

(8) Indemnification and Warranty:

The Capacity Release Customer shall indemnify the Company from all losses and damages resulting from the actions or inactions of the Capacity Release Customer and any Replacement Capacity Release Customer(s) under the Capacity Release Service Agreement with the Company and the pipeline service agreement(s). The Capacity Release Customer and any Replacement Capacity Release Customer(s) shall also warrant title to the gas transported under these agreements.
