IX. Special Adjustments-Continued

4. Gas Facility Costs Credit Provision

Firm Sales Customers and Firm Transportation Customers located within the geographic limits of New York City shall be credited with the net benefits of payments and credits received by the Company from the City of New York for gas facility costs pursuant to Public Service Law §66(26) and an agreement between the City of New York and the Company dated June 29, 1989. The net benefits shall be credited to New York City Customers' bills on a cents per therm basis, and shown separately on the Statement of Gas Adjustment. In any month where net benefits are applied to the Statement of Gas Adjustment, the Company will compare the net benefits applied on the Statement with the level of net benefits actually credited to New York City Customers in the month based on actual sales levels and apply any difference (negative or positive) to the Statement in effect in the second month succeeding the Statement containing the credits.
