SALES SERVICE FOR TRANSPORTATION CUSTOMERS

APPLICABLE TO USE FOR:

Sales of Company owned gas to transportation service Customers.

CHARACTER OF SERVICE:

Sales service available to transportation Customers that have entered into a sales service contract with the Company. Whether such sales service is firm or interruptible and the degree to which such service is firm or interruptible shall be determined in the sales contract between the Company and the Customer. The default level of service will be interruptible sales service.

RATE:

1. Sales Service Rate

The maximum default Sales Service Rate ("SSR") per Ccf consumed during the billing month shall be as listed below:

For Ccf of Sales Service in the months of April through October	110% of the per Ccf Gas Cost Rate for the month (including GAC)
For Ccf of Sales Service in the months of November through March	125% of the per Ccf Gas Cost Rate for the month (including GAC)

The Company may establish a lower default rate to be in effect during the month provided that the Company files the lower default rate with the Department of Public Service, not less than three business days prior to the beginning of the month for which the rate will be in effect. Provided, however, that the Company may increase said lowered default rate up to the maximum default rate at any time during the month twenty four hours after providing the Department of Public Service notice of such increase.

The Company and the Customer may negotiate a lower SSR than listed above on mutual agreement between the Company and the Customer.

The Company and the Customer may also negotiate a fixed SSR for more than a single month. To the extent that the Company and the Customer have negotiated an SSR to be in place for more than one month, the SSR in subsequent months of the term of the negotiated contract between the Company and the Customer may exceed the maximum default SSR effective during any month.
