- (2) For new or substantially amended gas supply contracts under which gas has not been purchased during all of the twelve months immediately preceding the computation date, the rates and charges of the supplier or suppliers or transporter or transporters which are or will be in effect as of the date the gas adjustment becomes effective, may be applied to the volumes of gas estimated to be taken under each such contract.
- (3) Whenever any of the supply or transportation contracts with a term of twelve months or more terminates and such supply has been used in the above computation in Paragraph (2) above, the supply will be excluded from the computation beginning the first month after deliveries cease. If the term of the contract was for less than twelve months, the supply will be excluded from the computation beginning with the month following the twelfth month of its inclusion.
- (4) The total cost of gas computed in Paragraphs (1) - (3) of this subdivision will be divided by the quantity of gas available for sale.

d. Statement of Gas Adjustment

The Gas Adjustment computed as herein provided, shall be effective commencing with gas used on and after the first day of the month following the computation date and shall continue in effect until changed.
