SERVICE CLASSIFICATION NO. 12APPLICABLE TO USE OF SERVICE FOR:

Qualified Sellers ("Sellers") of natural gas, or Direct Customers, who, without the use of interstate transportation released by the Company, transport the volume of natural gas specified by the Company to various pipeline delivery points that interconnect with the Company's distribution system, for receipt and redelivery of the transported volume by the Company on a firm basis to the firm transportation customer(s) pursuant to Service Classification No. 6. In order for a party to qualify as a Seller, it must have received a determination of eligibility from the Department of Public Service, execute an Application for Service, satisfy the Company's credit requirements and meet the requirements specified under "Consumer Protection."

CHARACTER OF SERVICE:

Continuous receipt of Sellers' or customer-owned gas for subsequent delivery by the Company to customers taking service under Service Classification No. 6.

By October 1st of each year, each Seller must demonstrate to the Company that:

- a) it has firm, non-recallable, primary delivery point capacity from the source(s) of gas supply to the Company's citygate, for the winter months of November through March; and/or
- b) for the 1999 - 2000 winter only, demonstrate that it has firm, non-recallable, secondary delivery point capacity from the source(s) of gas supply to the Company's citygate for the months of November through March.

The total of the Seller's firm, non-recallable, primary and secondary delivery point capacity must be sufficient to serve the needs of the Seller's firm transportation customers.

Sellers providing firm, non-recallable, secondary delivery point capacity shall be assessed Standby Charges in accordance with Special Provision F.

The citygate delivery points shall be the citygate delivery points specified by the Company. Prior to purchasing pipeline capacity, Seller must obtain from the Company the citygate delivery points that are operationally acceptable to the Company.

Demonstration of firm, non-recallable capacity shall consist of an affidavit signed by an officer of Seller, and notarized, setting forth information sufficient to allow the Company to verify that the Seller does have capacity meeting the requirements set forth above. The Company shall have the right to request additional documentation in support of the affidavit. Price-sensitive or proprietary data other than that required hereunder may be redacted from any capacity contracts provided to the Company.
