(Y) Compensation to Customers Experiencing Widespread Prolonged Outages(1) Definitions Applicable Under this General Information Section Only

"Proof of Loss" is defined as verifiable proof of perishable food and/or prescription medication spoilage that a Customer may be required to provide, in addition to an itemized list of the perishable food and/or prescription medicine, for which the Customer claims reimbursement. The Customer may also be required to provide, in addition to proof of loss, proof of the use of a gas- powered refrigerator or freezer. To verify spoilage, the Customer must provide Proof of Loss consisting of a depiction (photographic evidence) of food and/or prescription medication spoilage. To determine the reimbursement amount of an impacted Customer's food and/or prescription medication spoilage, the Customer must provide Proof of Loss consisting of itemized receipts, itemized cash register receipts, itemized credit card receipts, or photographs of replacement goods that also indicate the price of the item, or other verifiable documentation of the market value of the item, or, in appropriate circumstances, an interview with the claimant. An itemized list of spoiled food or prescription medicine is not itself a Proof of Loss.
