GENERAL INFORMATION

34. ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS: (Continued)

34.1.3 General Program Administration Requirements

34.1.3.1 All customers who participate in an Economic Development Program must agree to the applicable metering and billing options as described under Rule 34.1.4, Provisions for Metering and Billing.

34.1.3.2 All incremental and retained economic development electric load must be served off;

34.1.3.2.1 existing distribution, service and/or metering facilities, or;

34.1.3.2.2 distribution, service and/or metering facilities constructed by the customer, provided they meet Company specifications, or by the Company, as agreed upon within the executed service contract. The Company shall bear material and installation costs for line extensions up to the allowances provided for in 16NYCRR 98.2(j), in the case of an overhead line extension, or in 16NYCRR 98.2(h) or 98.2(i), in the case of an underground extension. In the case of an underground extension installed at the request of the applicant or authorized governmental agency, the allowance should be based on the estimated cost of overhead line provided over the same route as the underground line extension. The applicant shall be responsible for all costs which exceed the portion which the utility is required to provide without contribution.

34.1.3.3 All customers who participate in Program 4 - EZR who do not separately meter their load are subject to an Incremental Customer Charge. The Incremental Customer Charge is determined by the provisions of the service classification which would otherwise apply, absent the Economic Development program (hereinafter referred to as the parent service classification). The incremental customer charge consists of program specific requirements related to Incremental Metering, Billing, and Administration costs associated with providing these program related services.

34.1.4 Provisions for Metering and Billing Economic Development Usage

34.1.4.1 Options Program 4 - EZR

34.1.4.1.1 Physically Separated Loads - Where the customer physically separates its incremental load eligible for EZR service from its load which is not eligible for any such discount, the customer's incremental load shall be billed in accordance with the provisions of Rules 34.2.2 and 34.2.3 as applicable, and the customer's remaining load shall be billed under the otherwise applicable non-residential service classification of this Tariff.

Upon the termination of the customer's eligibility to receive service under any economic development program, all service to the customer shall be billed under the applicable non-residential service classification of this Tariff, inclusive of Retail Access under Rule 39 if elected by the customer.

34.1.4.1.2 Non - Separated Loads - Customers who elect not to establish a separately metered account for qualifying load must agree to be billed using the Program Specific Alternate Billing Methodology as described in Rule No. 34.2.3.
