Violations under the Two-Violation Rule - Continued

If a customer submitted a signed affidavit by October 15, and during the Winter Period, a customer interrupted the use of gas, as required, during the first planned interruption, then the customer will be granted an additional one-time waiver subject to the customer meeting all of the requirements detailed in this section. This exemption does not apply to customers taking service under the Shut-Down Option.

In addition to being charged the Two-Violation Penalty, a customer who incurs two violations will have their gas service terminated on or after the first business day after April 15 unless:

- (i) the Customer applies for firm gas service by April 15 and the Company, in its sole discretion, determines and notifies the Customer that it can accept them as a firm gas customer. The customer must meet all of the requirements for firm service, including all financial and safety obligations, including but not limited to the cost to serve them as a firm customer and modifications to internal piping that may be necessary to use firm gas or
- (ii) the Customer notifies the Company, in writing, by April 15 that the Customer has chosen to terminate gas service.

Any Customer whose service has been terminated pursuant this section may not return to service under this Rate Schedule for the remainder of the Winter Period and through the end of the next Winter Period. After that time, a Customer may re-apply for Interruptible or Off-Peak Firm Service not less than 90 days prior to the commencement date that falls within the period from November 1 to March 31.

Any Customer(s) for whom the Company must first install additional facilities in order to render Firm service or where the Customer elects to terminate gas service and additional facilities are required for the provision of ignition fuel only, the Company will establish appropriate arrangements for the installation of such facilities.

In addition to all other remedies available to the Company, the Company reserves the right to discontinue service immediately, temporarily or permanently, to the Customer or to the premises where there is a violation or any failure to comply with any of the provisions of this Service Classification, the Company's Operating Procedures, or this Rate Schedule.
