VI. Service Classification Riders (Available on Request) - Continued

RIDER H

Applicable to Service Classification Nos. 2 and 9
(Subject to the provisions thereof)

Distributed Generation Rate

(E) Term

The term is fifteen months from the date of commencement of service hereunder, and successive annual periods thereafter. The Customer or the Company may terminate service at the end of each annual period upon not less than 30 days prior notice in writing to the other party, except that the 30 day notice period shall not apply in cases where the Customer becomes ineligible for service hereunder for failure to maintain an Annual Load Factor of fifty percent or more. The Company may also terminate service in the manner provided by law and provisions of this Rate Schedule. In addition to all other remedies available to the Company, the Company reserves the right to discontinue service immediately, temporarily or permanently, to the Customer or to the premises where there is a violation or any failure to comply with any of the provisions of this Rider, the Company's Sales and Transportation Operating procedures, or this Rate Schedule.

Once a Customer commences service under Rate I or Rate II of this Rider, the Customer must remain on that rate until the end of the initial fifteen month term or until the end of any successive annual period(s) thereafter before being eligible to switch to the alternate rate under this Rider.

An Applicant will become eligible for service under this Rider on the first day of the next billing cycle following Company's receipt of an acceptable application for service and the completion of the installation of the required metering equipment, including any customer wiring and telecommunication facilities. Except as provided under the Eligibility provisions hereunder, Customers whose annual load factor falls below fifty percent will no longer be eligible for this service and may elect to be transferred to the otherwise applicable firm, interruptible or off-peak firm service classification. A Customer who fails to make an election will be deemed to have elected firm service. Such Customers may reapply for service hereunder after twelve consecutive months.
