SERVICE CLASSIFICATION NO. 7 (Continued)

A Customer seeking the Credit must request such credit by October 1 of each year for which the reliability credit it sought and, at the same time, specify the Outage Events the Customer requests to be excluded from the Defined Measurement Period. If October 1 falls on a weekend or holiday, the Company will accept requests until the next business day.

If a Standby Customer takes service under S.C. 7 – Special Provision I, the kW to be credited on each Standby Service account supplied by the generating facility's output will be based on the total kW to be credited multiplied by the ratio of the Contract Demand on the Standby Service account to the aggregated Contract Demand on all the Standby Service accounts supplied by the generating facility's output.
