E. Notification by the Company

1. The Company will notify Direct Participants and Aggregators by phone, e-mail, or machine-readable electronic signal, or a combination thereof, in advance of the commencement of a Load Relief Period or Test Event. The Direct Participant or Aggregator shall designate in writing an authorized representative and an alternate representative, and include an electronic address if applicable, to receive the notice. If an Aggregator is served under this Rider, only the Aggregator will be notified of the Load Relief Period or Test Event. The Aggregator is responsible for notifying all of its customers within its respective aggregation group in the affected Network(s).
2. Under CSRP:
  - a. The Company will call a Planned Event on not less than two hours' advance notice. A Planned Event will not be called unless an Advisory was issued at least 21 hours in advance.
  - b. The Company will call a Test Event on not less than 21 hours' advance notice. If the Company provided notice of a Test Event a calendar day in advance, the Company will again provide advance notice on the day of the Test Event, usually two or more hours in advance.
  - c. The Company will provide notice as soon as practicable if an Unplanned Event is called.
3. Under DLRP:
  - a. The Company will call a Contingency Event or Test Event on not less than two hours' advance notice.
  - b. The Company will provide notice as soon as practicable if an Immediate Event is called.
