SERVICE CLASSIFICATION No. 12 (Cont'd)

STANDBY SALES SERVICE FOR TRANSPORTATION CUSTOMERS - Cont'd

(3) Published Monthly Rate for Qualified Customers

The Company may establish rates lower than the default rates described above for specific groups of Customers provided that the Company files the qualification criteria and the applicable rate with the Public Service Commission not less than three business days prior to the beginning of the month for which the rate will be in effect.

(4) Miscellaneous Surcharges

Increase in Rates in Municipality Where Service is Supplied

All rates and charges under this Service Classification, including charges specified under the Special Provisions of this Service Classification and the Transportation Service Agreement, shall be increased pursuant to General Information Section 35, to reflect the tax rates applicable within the municipality where the Customer is taking service.

D. MONTHLY VOLUME:

(1) Demand

The monthly Mcf Demand volume of gas to which the Monthly Standby Demand Rate set forth above shall be applied, shall be specified for each month of the term of the Standby Service Agreement. For default contracts, the maximum month contract volume must be lesser than or equal to 200% of the average monthly contract volume for the annual term of the contract.

(2) Commodity

Customer's monthly consumption in excess of Customer's nominated sales service, if applicable, surplus transportation deliveries from prior months, and current month transportation deliveries, but not greater than the monthly contracted Demand volumes specified in the Standby Service Agreement. Customer's monthly consumption in excess of Customer's nominated monthly firm transportation sales requirement, excess Customer deliveries from prior months, current month transportation deliveries, and standby service volumes will be billed under the Deficiency Imbalance Sales Service rate schedule.
