GENERAL INFORMATION

The Company may not upwardly revise a backbill, and must issue a downwardly revised backbill as soon as reasonably possible and within two months after the Company becomes aware that the first backbill was excessive.

C. Limitations on Backbilling Period

When the failure to bill earlier was due to a Company deficiency, the Company must limit the backbilling period to 12 months before the Company actually became aware of and corrected the circumstance, error or condition that caused the underbilling, unless the Company can demonstrate that the Customer's culpable conduct caused or contributed to the original underbilling.

When the failure to bill earlier was not due to a Company deficiency, the Company must limit the backbilling period to 24 months before the Company actually became aware of and corrected the circumstance, error or condition that caused the underbilling, unless the Company can demonstrate that the Customer's culpable conduct caused or contributed to the original underbilling.

28. RULES RELATING TO THE INSTALLATION OF MAINS, SERVICES, CONNECTIONS AND FACILITIES AND EXTENSIONS

1. Definitions

- (a) Water Main - a pipe carrying water which is generally available to more than one service line.
- (b) Extension - the extension of a water main including the pipe, elbows, tees, valves, reducers, service taps, and other appurtenances which may be part of the facilities extended to provide water service.
- (c) Service Line or Lateral - the pipe and valves which are used to deliver the water from the main into the Customer premises; the Company portion being that between the main and the Customer's property line, and the Customer's portion being that from the property line into the premises.
- (d) Service Connection - the facilities necessary to provide the Customer service, including the service line, the main tap, meter, and other related facilities.
- (e) Extension Costs - as used in this part shall include the costs of labor, equipment and materials used in the replacement of street or sidewalk which may be disturbed in the course of such installation, the costs of inspection, amounts paid to governmental authorities for permits to do the work required, and other costs or taxes that are legally imposed by any governmental agency/authority.
