- 5) for quantities of natural gas consumed by the Customer that exceed the quantities of natural gas delivered by more than twenty percent (20%), the excess shall be purchased by the Customer at one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the Company's Daily Gas Sales Price plus $10/dth.

Daily Balancing Charges shall be billed monthly with the Customer's monthly invoice for transportation service.

Overrun Charge and Charge for Unauthorized Use:

The Company reserves the right to impose a penalty charge for unauthorized overruns. When service hereunder is interrupted by the Company in accordance with the terms of the Customer's service agreement, gas consumed subsequent to such interruption and without specific authorization by the Company will be subject to an additional charge of $100.00 per dth. The imposition of such additional charge shall not limit any rights of the Company to terminate gas service provided for in the Customer's service agreement.

Operational Flow Order Penalty Charge

The Company reserves the right to impose a penalty charge when it issues an Operational Flow Order (OFO) to implement hourly balancing and a customer subsequently consumes more gas than it deliveries (adjusted for system use and losses). Any negative imbalance that results during the OFO will be subject to an Operational Flow Order Penalty Charge of $100.00 per dth.
