More specifically, the Company is filing a revision to the Gas Reliability Surcharge to reflect a change in the calculation, if necessary, to reflect the storage inventory working capital carrying costs¹. RG&E is also filing to remove "PSC" from the label for Transition Charge in its gas tariffs.

Additional revisions are being made to correct typographical errors in its electric tariff, PSC No. 19.

Newspaper Publication

The Company respectfully requests waiver of additional publication as the changes contained herein will not affect the newspaper notice of the Company's filing that has been in circulation.

Questions concerning this filing should be directed to me at (607) 762-8710.

Very truly yours,
